

Find Assistance with Conservation Projects

This table provides a list of land trusts and other conservation organizations in New Hampshire and Maine that provide assistance to communities and conservation groups with their conservation projects, as they might apply to each organization's conservation criteria.

Organization	Contact	Assistance Provided
New Hampshire
Bear-Paw Regional Greenways	Contact: Kaitlin Deyo Kaitlyn@bear-paw.org	Expertise and assistance with land conservation projects that meet their criteria in the New Hampshire communities of Candia, Deerfield, Northwood, Nottingham, Raymond and Strafford.
Great Bay National Estuarine Research Reserve Coastal Training Program	Contact: Lynn Vaccaro lynn.e.vaccaro@wildlife.nh.gov	Training, presentations, advice, and support for mapping, map interpretation to prioritize parcels, saltmarsh resilience and migration pathway analysis, partnerships, funding opportunities, and regional land protection plans
Moose Mountain Regional Greenways	Contact: Veronica Bodge veronica@mmergnh.org	Expertise and assistance with land conservation projects that meet their criteria in the New Hampshire communities of Brookfield, Farmington, Middleton, Milton, New Durham, and Wakefield.
Natural resources and land-use planning consultants in NH		Consulting services in support of conservation, conservation planning, and land use planning in New Hampshire's Coastal Watershed. (Note: this list is not exhaustive.)
NH Watershed Associations in the Coastal Watershed		There are a number of active watershed associations in the New Hampshire portion of the coastal watershed. These groups may be able to provide you with additional assistance
Rockingham Planning Commission	Contact: Jennifer Rowden jrowden@therpc.org	Support for development of municipal master plan chapters on natural resources, climate adaptation and land use planning chapters; natural resources inventories; open space plans; and environmental overlay districts, including wetlands, steep slopes, ground water, and shorelines that protect key natural resources.
Society for the Protection of NH Forests	Contact: Brian Hotz bhotz@forestsociety.org	Expertise and assistance with land conservation projects that meet their criteria throughout the coastal New Hampshire Coastal Watershed.
Southeast Land Trust	Contact: Duane Hyde duane@seltnh.org	Expertise and assistance in support of land conservation projects that meet their criteria throughout the New Hampshire Coastal watershed.

Organization	Contact	Assistance Provided
Strafford Regional Planning Commission	Contact: Kyle Pimental kpimental@strafford.org	Support for development of municipal master plan chapters, including those on land use, transportation, natural resources, climate adaptation, and energy; natural resources inventories; watershed and river corridor management plans and other conservation planning documents; and environmental overlay districts, including wetlands, steep slopes, groundwater, and shorelines that protect key natural resources. Provide GIS mapping services and technical assistance to promote conservation and land protection.
The Nature Conservancy - NH	Contact: Elizabeth Bergquist e.bergquist@tnc.org	Expertise and assistance with land conservation projects that meet their criteria, throughout the New Hampshire Coastal Watershed.
University of New Hampshire Cooperative Extension and NH Sea Grant	Contact: Lisa Wise lisa.wise@unh.edu	Facilitation, training, presentations and guidance for communities in support of natural resource inventory planning, conservation land prioritization, and interpretation and use of the local, regional and statewide natural resources maps, data and related information
Maine
Great Works Regional Land Trust	Contact: Jane Brekke projects@gwrlt.org	Expertise and assistance with land conservation projects that meet their criteria in the Maine communities of North Berwick, Berwick, South Berwick, Eliot, and Wells
Kittery Land Trust	Contact: Lisa Linehan lisa@kitterylandtrust.org	Expertise and assistance with land conservation projects that meet their criteria in Kittery
Maine Coast Heritage Trust	Contact: Warren Whitney wwhitney@mcht.org	Expertise and assistance with land conservation projects that meet their criteria in Maine communities.
Mt. Agamenticus to the Sea Conservation Initiative (MtA2C)	Contact: Lisa Linehan lisa@kitterylandtrust.org	Expertise and assistance with land conservation projects that meet their criteria in the Coastal Watershed towns of South Berwick, York, Eliot and Kittery.
Southern Maine Planning and Development Commission	Contact: Abbie Sherwin asherwin@smpdc.org	Preparing municipal Comprehensive Plan chapters (land use, natural resources, climate change, transportation, and others); Climate adaptation and sustainability planning and project implementation; Coastal resilience planning; Open space and land conservation planning; Watershed management planning; Drafting ordinances and environmental overlay districts to protect natural resources; GIS mapping services and technical assistance.
Three Rivers Land Trust	Contact: Cheri Dunning cheri@3rlt.org	Expertise and assistance with land conservation projects that meet their criteria in Acton, Lebanon, and Sanford, ME.
York Land Trust	Contact: info@yorklandtrust.org	Expertise and assistance with land conservation projects that meet their criteria in York, ME
connect-protect.org		